The Polimex-Mostostal President is member of the Social Dialog Board

10/22/2015

Today, the President of Poland, Andrzej Duda, appointed Joanne Makowiecka-Gaca, President of the Management Board of Polimex-Mostostal as a member of the Social Dialog Board.

The Social Dialog Board, which will replace the Tri-Partite Commission, is composed of 59 persons - representatives of organizations of employers, trade unions and the government party. The OPZZ, Trade Unions Forum and NSZZ "Solidarność" will have eight members each, and six members will be appointed from each of four employer organizations: Employers of Poland, Polish confederation Lewiatan, Business Centre Club and Polish Craft Association. The President will have his representative in the Board, acting as an advisor, and the same will apply to the presidents of the National Bank of Poland and Central Statistical Office.

Joanna Makowiecka-Gaca is a representative of Employers of Poland in the Social Dialog Board.
